Trading Plan

A plan usually comes in the form of hard work. Here are the most important pieces of a trading plan.

Trading Why – This should be narrowed down into one sentence. It can have other statements around it supporting it.

Daily Goals – Here should be clear daily goals that can be accomplished.

Define The Pre-Game – This is what you are looking for in the pre-market to give you a clearer picture of the overall day.

Game-Plan – This defines trade setups and trading rules.
